Positioned in a peaceful, family-friendly cul-de-sac, 21 Butler Street, Raceview is a home designed to solve the everyday challenges of family living - space, comfort and room for everyone to enjoy their own zone.

This generous four-bedroom, two-bathroom home with double lock-up garage offers a layout that families consistently love. With multiple separate living areas, including a formal lounge and formal dining room plus an open-plan living and dining space, there's flexibility for growing families, entertaining guests or simply enjoying some personal space.

At the heart of the home sits the well-appointed kitchen - perfectly positioned and overlooking the outdoor entertaining area through a charming garden window. It's a practical and welcoming space where family life naturally comes together.

All four bedrooms are well sized, with the master bedroom featuring its own ensuite and walk-in robe, provides a private retreat away from the rest of the home.

Step outside and the home truly shines. Set on a generous 720m² block, the property boasts a huge covered outdoor entertaining area, ideal for weekend barbecues, family gatherings or relaxing with friends. With side access to the backyard, there's excellent potential to add a pool or shed in the future, while still maintaining plenty of yard space for kids and pets.

Combining space, comfort and a highly sought-after layout in a quiet Raceview location close to schools, shops and amenities, this is a home that ticks all the boxes for family buyers and investors alike.

If you're searching for a home where everyone can have their own space - without sacrificing togetherness - 21 Butler Street, Raceview is a must-see.
