At the heart of the home is a stylish island kitchen featuring stone benchtops, a breakfast bar, 900mm oven and gas cooktop, stainless steel rangehood and dishwasher. Overlooking the main living area, it creates a practical and welcoming space for everyday living and entertaining.

The master bedroom is complete with a walk-in robe and private ensuite, while split-system air conditioning throughout the bedrooms and lounge room provides year-round comfort.

Outside, the alfresco area offers a great space to relax or entertain, with artificial lawn and decking creating an attractive, easy-care backyard with minimal upkeep required.

Additional features include water filtration system, solar panels, security cameras and security screens for added peace of mind.

Set on an approximately 320sqm block and positioned close to local parks and the new Sienna Wood Shopping Centre, this home combines lifestyle, convenience and low-maintenance appeal.
