Rich in early-1910 charm, this classic Colonial residence offers the warmth, space, and versatility that so many buyers are searching for - all in a convenient, well-connected North Ipswich location.

Behind its charming street presence and welcoming picket-fence appeal, the home blends original character features with thoughtful updates, creating a residence that feels instantly inviting and effortlessly liveable.

From the moment you step inside, you'll appreciate the timeless details that define the era - wide hoop pine floors, soaring ceilings, tongue-and-groove walls, and an abundance of natural light complementing a practical layout ideal for modern family living.

CHARACTER, SPACE & VERSATILITY

Offering exceptional flexibility, the home provides multiple bedrooms and living options to suit those seeking work-from-home functionality. How will you use this space?

The living area is fresh, welcoming, and complete with climate control, enhanced by classic windows and charming period touches. An adjoining study is the perfect space for working or studying from home.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen is both functional and generous, featuring excellent storage that embraces the original fire alcove, ample bench space, and a freestanding oven - ideal for everyday living and entertaining alike.

The bathroom has been tastefully renovated, offering comfort and practicality while respecting the home's character, including a bath for those quiet moments at the end of the day.

Two real bedrooms, principle bedroom presents with independent climate control.

Oh so welcome is the very clever, strong bank of storage for the love of an organised life.

Internal laundry positioned for multi-tasking!

INDOOR-OUTDOOR LIVING MADE EASY

Step outside to a private, covered outdoor entertaining area - a wonderful extension of the home and the perfect spot for relaxed BBQs, family gatherings, or quiet mornings with a coffee.

Love the ease of a double remote powered garage and a property so well fenced you can let the pets roam free.
