Showcasing an appealing Hamptons-style facade, beautifully landscaped surrounds and elevated views towards the Strzelecki Ranges, this impressive residence delivers a lifestyle of effortless quality, comfort and style in a sought-after Warragul setting.

A welcoming double-door entry opens to a beautifully appointed interior where high ceilings immediately create an enhanced sense of space and sophistication. The main bedroom enjoys a lovely easterly aspect and features plantation shutters, a generous walk-in robe and a stylish ensuite with twin vanities. A separate formal lounge provides a peaceful retreat, while the expansive open-plan living and dining domain forms the heart of the home, adjoining a superb kitchen appointed with a generous stone island bench, abundant cabinetry and a walk-in pantry.

Three further generous bedrooms, each complete with walk-in robes, are privately positioned within their own wing and conveniently serviced by the family bathroom, creating an ideal floorplan for families and guests alike.

Extending the living outdoors, the alfresco area provides the perfect setting for relaxed entertaining while overlooking the beautifully landscaped and private backyard.

Designed for immediate enjoyment, the home includes double glazing, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, 900mm cooking appliances, quality window furnishings and blinds, while the fully landscaped block is complete with concrete pathways-removing the time, expense and uncertainty associated with building.
