Country Living with Views That Take Your Breath Away!

If you're looking for a country property with space, comfort and views to fall in love with, this one is well worth a look!
This tidy two-storey home is in great condition, offering comfortable living with both a ramp and stairs for convenient access.
Enjoy the versatility of the under-house area, perfect for family gatherings, entertaining or simply making the most of country living, with one car space included.
For those needing room for the tools, toys and machinery, the huge storage shed is a real bonus!
Set on a great block with magnificent views across the surrounding countryside and towards Purlewaugh, you'll be treated to absolutely divine sunrises and sunsets - the kind of views that remind you why country living is so special.
With an equipped bore and water tanks already in place, this property offers practical country living in a peaceful rural setting, just a short drive from Ulamambri and the gateway to the Purlewaugh District.
Amazing value, beautiful views and a little slice of country paradise! Come and see for yourself.
"Conveniently located just a short drive from Coonabarabran, approximately 15-20 km away.
