Step inside and be welcomed by impressive high cathedral ceilings that create a wonderful sense of space in both the lounge and bedroom. Freshly painted throughout with brand-new flooring, the home feels light, bright, and ready to move straight into.

The well-appointed kitchen features a gas cooktop, while the spacious lounge is fitted with split-system air conditioning to keep you comfortable all year round.

Outside, you will love the north-facing front courtyard – the perfect place to enjoy your morning coffee or unwind after a long day. A charming picket fence provides attractive street appeal, and a dedicated car space adds everyday convenience.
