By Appointment.

Designed with space and practicality in mind, the versatile floorplan provides plenty of options for growing families, teenagers or those requiring additional room for guests. The ground level features a spacious rumpus room complete with an inbuilt bar and separate powder room, creating an ideal retreat for entertaining or relaxed family living. Upstairs, a separate casual living area complements the expansive open plan family and dining space, providing plenty of room for everyone to come together.

At the heart of the main living zone, the stylish timber kitchen features stone benchtops, Bosch appliances and generous preparation space, with an easy connection to the surrounding living and dining areas. Wide balcony access extends the living space outdoors, where the elevated position captures beautiful panoramic views to the south.

Accommodation comprises four comfortably sized bedrooms, led by a private master retreat featuring a walk-through robe, beautifully updated ensuite and direct access to the balcony. The remaining bedrooms are serviced by an immaculate main bathroom complete with a corner spa and updated vanity.

Outdoor entertaining is well catered for with an all-weather alfresco area overlooking the low-maintenance backyard, complemented by an additional paved area ideal for larger family gatherings. A double garage with internal access and separate storage room adds further practicality, while a 7.8kW solar system is a welcome inclusion.

Offering four bedrooms, two bathrooms, multiple living areas, excellent entertaining options and an elevated outlook, this is a flexible family home conveniently positioned in a friendly street close to local schools, parks and bus services.
