The layout offers four generous bedrooms, including a master with ensuite, separate living areas, and a central kitchen that flows into the dining and family spaces - the natural gathering point of the home.

Out back, a large secure private yard with mountain and bush outlook gives you a genuine blank slate: space for a pool, an extended outdoor entertaining area, or keep the low maintenance yard as is for the kids or pets

The current owners have put real care into the property, adding a new stove and oven, LED downlights throughout, a resealed and repainted roof, a new side fence, a custom reading nook with built-in storage, a vegetable garden, new bathroom fittings as well as having secure pet house outside accessible from one of the bedrooms
