Positioned less than 100 metres from the sand, with only a strip of Coffs Coast Regional Park between you and the ocean, this is where coastal living becomes part of your daily routine. Beach access is just down the road, making morning walks, swims, and sunset strolls effortlessly part of your day.

This is your chance to design a home that works for you – whether it's a relaxed beach house, a low-maintenance coastal retreat, or the forever home you've been dreaming about.

With Mullaway Beach just a short stroll away and Arrawarra Bay moments down the road, you're perfectly placed to enjoy some of the best the coastline has to offer.

A rare opportunity to secure your place by the ocean – simple, special, and ready to build on.
