Back to Nature!

If lazing on the beach sounds more like your style, then take a short walk down the street to Berrara lagoon which opens up to the beach just 150 metres away - the best thing about this holiday home is that everything's just a stone's throw away!
Relax outside in the shade of the brand new pergola, behind you is Cudmirrah National Park, where there are bush walking trails to lead you back in time to ancient Aboriginal middens, along Berrara lagoon and across to Cudmirrah where you can stop off at the lake for a refreshing swim.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

If the kids have an abundance of energy, the forshore of Berrara lagoon has a well maintained reserve and playground for those great sunny days involving a picnic lunch and a friendly game of cricket for the young and old!
NO PETS ALLOWED.
