At the heart of the home is a generous open-plan lounge and dining area, flowing seamlessly to the large covered deck and backyard. The expansive deck provides an impressive year-round entertaining area overlooking the level lawn and swimming pool, creating the perfect setting for family gatherings and summer afternoons.

The flexible floorplan offers multiple bedrooms and living areas, including a separate upper-level bedroom and bedroom /office, providing excellent options for growing families, teenagers, guests or those working from home. A second kitchenette and additional living space further enhance the versatility of the home.

With a dedicated garage, carport, workshop/storage area and additional driveway parking, there is plenty of space for vehicles, hobbies and storage.

Set in a convenient Cromer location, this is a home that combines generous proportions with an enviable indoor/outdoor lifestyle, offering plenty of scope for families to make it their own.
