$1.4 million

Townhouse 4  3  2

Private and peaceful with views - a standout location!

Nestled among lush tropical gardens in the exclusive, gated Pacific Villas estate, Villa 24 enjoys a peaceful spot on Korora headland, just north of Coffs. Tucked away in a gated community, on a pristine strip of coastline, it's a place where ocean breezes roll through and leafy treetop views open out to the sea and distant islands. Whales, sail boats and the delightful ocean vista are on constant display and the north facing aspect attracts beautiful morning sun as well as seasonal comfort.

This is an ideal option for anyone wanting to downsize without sacrificing space or comfort. With four bedrooms, generous living and dining areas and an open, airy layout, the home feels welcoming and relaxed. The 2.7m high glass doors and windows downstairs open out to the breathtaking scenery outside. The living space flows naturally to a large covered alfresco area, perfect for slow mornings, long lunches or easy evenings with friends.

Days here can be as active or as laid-back as you like. There are two private, 20m swimming pools within the estate for use by the residents as well as direct access to Charlesworth Bay Beach and the Solitary Islands Coastal Walk which leads you along the coastline to Diggers Beach, Macauleys and south to the surf club, marina and harbour.

Features include:

- Private gated community
- Relaxed treetop, ocean and island outlooks
- Spacious living with easy, low-maintenance appeal
- Large undercover alfresco area
- Flexible main bedroom option on the ground floor with adjoining bathroom
- Grassed outdoor space with colourful garden beds
- 3.6kW solar system
- Surrounded by natural beauty
- Two resort-style pools
- Everyday living with a resort-style feel
