

24 Inglis St, Kotara South, NSW 2289

Preview

House 3 1 1

A Cherished Family Home Ready for Its Next Chapter

Held by the same family for generations, this much-loved home presents a wonderful opportunity to secure a solid piece of Kotara South real estate history on a generous 645sqm parcel of land. Rich in character and packed with original features, the home provides exciting scope to renovate, reconfigure or simply make it your own over time.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Behind its modest façade, you'll discover a surprisingly generous floor plan with multiple living spaces, timber flooring ready to be refurbished, and the timeless charm that only a home of this era can provide. Filled with warmth, personality and potential, this is the kind of property buyers wait years to find.

- * Generous 645sqm block in a family-friendly location
- * Solid 1950s-built home with great scope to renovate
- * Oversized main bedroom complete with built-in robe
- * Third bedroom or home office with storage/robe
- * Large north-facing sunroom receives glorious Winter sun
- * Original eat-in kitchen offering plenty of potential
- * Cypress pine or timber flooring, ready to be refurbished
- * Combustion fireplace and natural gas heater for Winter comfort
- * Charming 9-foot ceilings enhancing the sense of space
- * Under-house garage for secure parking, storage or future workshop space
- * Established backyard needing vision to reimagine
- * Excellent bones for future renovations/reconfigure floor plan

Positioned within easy reach of quality schools, Kotara South Public School, St James Primary School, Kotara High School, Westfield Kotara, parks, sports grounds and bus transport. This address delivers the convenience that continues to make Kotara South one of Newcastle's most popular residential suburbs. Families will enjoy the community vibe, while renovators and investors will recognise the long-term appeal on offer.

Whether you're looking to restore an original family home, undertake a thoughtful renovation or secure a solidly-built property in a tightly held neighbourhood, this is an opportunity to create something truly special while honouring the character and history that already exists. It's ready to occupy and reinvent this appealing home.

Listed By

The Office
Phone: (02) 4928 7400

