About Collarenebri

Collarenebri is a town in North West of New South Wales, in the Walgett Shire on the Gwydir Highway. Nestled on the Barwon River, about 75 Kms northeast of Walgett and 142 Kms west of Moree. The Barwon River provides great recreational activities such as picnics, water sports and is regarded as one of the best inland fishing locations in Australia. At the 2011 census, Collarenebri had a population of 386. Even though small, Collarenebri still has everything needed for a comfortable country life-style. There is a Post Office with a Banking facility, K-12 Central School, Preschool, Homecare, Community Transport, Pool, Hot Mineral Baths (under construction), Racetrack, Airstrip, Hospital, Aged Care Unit, Doctor Surgery, Ambulance Station, Bowling Club, Lion's Club, Church, Police Station, Pub, Chemist, IGA Supermarket, Cafe, Rural Supplies outlet, SES, Rural Fire Service and used Furniture shop. The immediate region has a wealth of rural industries such as cotton, wheat, sheep, beef and other grain cropping. Yearly events include the Mulga Mud Trails, Carp Muster and the Annual Spring Carnival Race Meeting.
