

27 Cecil St, Gordon, NSW 2072

Auction

House 5 4 3

Grand North-Facing Estate with Timeless Elegance and Resort-

Only 400 metres from the renowned Ravenswood School for Girls, the estate rests quietly on an expansive north-aspect 1,758 sqm parcel behind sculpted gardens — composed, assured, and unmistakably grand. A frontage of 30.5 metres unfolds like an architectural prologue, where even before entry a sense of order and quiet authority is felt. Designed on a magnificent scale and arranged across multiple impressive levels, the residence delivers a rare balance of refined formal entertaining, expansive family living and resort-style outdoor connection, shaped with intention and vision.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Auction Details

14/03/2026 at 1:00 PM

Inside, space advances like movements in a symphony. Rooflines, walls and windows respond to light, breeze and season, creating a home that feels both structured and effortless. Upon entry, a stunning circular staircase immediately captures the eye, announcing a residence of distinction. Elegant formal living and dining rooms unfold with graceful proportion, their presence poised and timeless, guiding movement naturally toward the heart of the home.

The Central Hall

A soaring ceiling draws daylight downward into a grand central hall — the spiritual heart of the residence. Here, scale and stillness coexist, setting the tone for a home where architecture and atmosphere work in harmony.

Multiple Living Wings

The formal lounge and dining rooms frame garden outlooks like living artwork, offering refined spaces for quiet gatherings. At the centre, a superbly appointed modern kitchen features premium appliances, generous benchtops and abundant storage, seamlessly connecting to an intimate sunlit dining space where daily living feels elevated yet effortless.

Beyond, an expansive family lounge — complete with a fireplace — opens fluidly to pavilions and water features, creating a setting for warmth, conversation and celebration. The indoor-outdoor flow continues to a covered alfresco terrace with built-in barbecue, overlooking the sparkling in-ground pool and full-sized tennis court, establishing a private resort-like atmosphere rarely found in a residential home.

Listed By

The Office

Phone: (02) 9496 8000

