A welcoming front deck with tropical landscaping provides superb street appeal with the warming welcome extended throughout the residence. Tiled flooring stretches throughout an air-conditioned open-plan layout with spacious living and dining having fantastic natural light as well as great connection to outdoor entertaining. Framed by quality cabinetry with a walk-in pantry complementing the excellent storage, the central kitchen is designed to cater to any demand with a flowing layout including stainless appliances and handy stone bench space.

Sliding doors guide seamless transition outdoors to a tiled patio, allowing for alfresco dining, relaxation or entertaining with ease. There is both covered and sun-kissed zones to enjoy, as well as direct flow into the backyard; generously sized and fenced for those with children or pets.

Four plush bedrooms each provide built-in storage with bedroom 4 very generously sized for those preferring an additional living/media room. The master bedroom has direct alfresco access as well as a walk-in robe and contemporary ensuite whilst the family bathroom matches in style and includes a separate bath. Additional features include plantation shutters, a separate laundry and double remote garage.

An ideal location embraces a no-fuss lifestyle with a position that is walking distance to parkland, bus stop and primary schooling. In addition, secondary schooling, numerous shopping, plenty of dining options and major transport corridors are just a short drive away ensuring that this location will always be in demand!
