The tastefully renovated home features light-filled living areas, reverse-cycle air conditioning, and a well-appointed kitchen complete with a dishwasher and generous pantry storage. The home offers comfortable bedrooms, with two featuring large mirrored built-in wardrobes, along with the added flexibility of a separate studio or fourth bedroom with its own mirrored wardrobe, ideal for guests, a home office or a teenager's retreat.

Additional features include a separate laundry, separate toilet, and a spacious main bathroom complete with a full-size bathtub, walk-in shower and ample storage. The master bedroom includes a large private ensuite.

Parking and storage are well catered for with a long single lock-up garage featuring a workbench and extensive shelving, a secure gated area suitable for an additional vehicle, and off-street parking for up to three vehicles.

Outside, enjoy the relaxed beachside lifestyle with a private outdoor shower, perfect after a swim or day at the beach, as well as a peaceful outdoor entertaining area with lovely coastal views.

With easy walking access to everything Tuross Head has to offer, this low-maintenance home is ideal for those seeking a laid-back coastal lifestyle. Properties of this quality and location rarely become available for permanent rental, a true coastal gem.
