The home offers four well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms, with a smart layout designed to separate living and accommodation zones. Downstairs features light-filled open-plan living and dining areas that connect seamlessly to the outdoor entertaining space, while upstairs is enhanced by an additional living room that opens onto a balcony - perfect as a retreat, media space, or kids' zone. The kitchen sits at the heart of the home, designed for everyday practicality and easy entertaining, flowing easily to the covered BBQ area and low-maintenance rear patio. Completing the outdoor space are two large raised garden beds, ideal for herbs, vegetables, or low-effort greenery, adding both function and charm without ongoing upkeep.

The property is complemented by a double garage with internal access, offering secure parking and additional storage.

With Shell Cove Marina, beaches, parks, and local amenities just minutes away - and school drop-off literally across the road - this is a home that delivers lifestyle, convenience, and long-term appeal.
