Located approximately 1 hour 15 minutes from Newcastle Airport and around 1 hour 30 minutes from Newcastle itself, Coolongolook offers an appealing balance of peaceful country living while remaining within easy reach of the coast, airport and larger regional centres, making commuting to Newcastle for work, travel or regular visits surprisingly convenient.

From the moment you step inside, there is an immediate sense of warmth and welcome. Lovingly cared for and exceptionally well maintained, the home reflects genuine pride of ownership throughout. Fresh paint and thoughtful updates further enhance its appeal, creating a property that is ready to move in and enjoy.

Beautiful stained-glass windows feature throughout sections of the home, adding charm, warmth and a distinctive sense of character. Stylish vinyl plank flooring flows through the dining area, kitchen, hallway, fourth bedroom and laundry, while the lounge room and three additional bedrooms feature soft carpet underfoot.

The generously proportioned master bedroom provides a peaceful retreat, complete with air conditioning and a stylish barn-style sliding door finished with contrasting black hardware. Beyond, you'll find a functional walk-in robe and ensuite featuring a shower, vanity and toilet. The home is completed by three additional bedrooms, all offering built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans.

Servicing the home is a well-appointed family bathroom featuring a shower, bath and vanity, while a separate toilet and ample linen storage add everyday convenience.

Positioned away from the main living areas, the laundry is practical and functional, offering excellent storage, bench space and a sink.

At the heart of the home, the recently renovated kitchen combines style and functionality, showcasing ample storage, striking black hardware, a dishwasher and electric cooking. A sliding door off the kitchen opens onto the covered rear deck, creating a seamless connection to the backyard and providing a peaceful space to relax and enjoy the outdoors.
