The practical single-level layout features two comfortable bedrooms with built-in robes, a well-maintained bathroom, separate laundry and a functional kitchen adjoining the generous open-plan living and dining area. Outside, a private courtyard and covered alfresco area provide a peaceful space to relax or entertain, while the single lock-up garage and separate garden shed offer added convenience and storage.

With the beautiful Shellharbour coastline, local beaches and Shell Cove Marina all within easy reach. Enjoy the cafés, restaurants and waterfront lifestyle of The Waterfront Shell Cove, along with convenient access to Stockland Shellharbour, local shops, schools, parks and transport - everything you need is close to home.

Whether you're looking to purchase your first home, downsize to something more manageable or secure a solid investment, this well-presented villa is an opportunity well worth considering. Private, secure and wonderfully low maintenance, 3/7 Tabourie Close, Flinders is ready to enjoy while still offering plenty of scope to make it your own.
