Full of character from head to toe, the home features open plan living with warm timber floorboards throughout, and a rear undercover alfresco deck where the magic truly happens. This is the perfect spot to soak up the views, entertain, or simply unwind as the sea breeze rolls in.

Stroll down for a dip at Little Beach, paddle out at Rosedale's surf breaks, cast a line off the rocks, or just relax and bask in the sunshine. A walking track offers easy access to both North and South Rosedale Beach, depending on which one you choose to enjoy on the day. Rosedale is one of those rare coastal villages that blends into the natural landscape - unspoiled, peaceful, and yet only a short drive to the amenities of nearby Malua Bay.

This is beachside living at its purest - relaxed, beautiful, and impossible not to fall in love with.
