If you've got an eye for potential and a love for character homes, then this flood free early 1960s chamferboard beauty (currently cladded) is calling your name! Packed with original charm and just waiting for the right touch to make it shine, this is the kind of property that gets snapped up in a heartbeat-so don't let this one pass you by.

Location? You couldn't ask for better! Nestled in a super convenient spot, you're just a short stroll from the local shops and Bundamba TAFE, with all the essential amenities just a quick drive away. Whether it's schools, shopping, dining, or easy access to transport, everything you need is right at your fingertips.

Inside, this home has all the charm and personality of its era, starting with the three bedrooms.

The eat-in kitchen is a real highlight, offering loads of bench space, plus a freestanding oven ready to cook up a storm.

There's something truly special about homes of this vintage, and nowhere is that more apparent than in the bathroom, where gorgeous terrazzo floors meet funky pink dotty tiles-a quirky, retro contrast that's sure to spark conversation.

The separate lounge offers a cosy space to unwind, with French doors that open to a study-ideal for those working from home, crafting a hobby space, or just needing a quiet corner to escape. And let's not forget the sunroom! Whether you're sipping your morning coffee or curling up with a book in the afternoon sun, this bonus space is a real treat.
