Established Family Business Since 1972
Business and Property | $790,000 Including Stock

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

An exceptional opportunity to acquire one of the Manning Valley's most recognised and respected nursery businesses, proudly family-owned and operated for over 50 years.

Wingham Nursery & Florist has built a loyal customer base and strong reputation for quality plants, expert advice, and personalised service. With approximately 70% of all plant stock grown onsite, the business enjoys greater control over supply, quality, and profitability while offering customers an extensive range of locally grown products.

Set on a substantial freehold site of approximately 2,400m2, the business presents exceptionally well and generates strong and consistent trading figures, providing an ideal platform for continued success. The sale includes the freehold property, established business, and all stock, allowing a new owner to step straight in and continue operations.

The current owner is offering the business for sale solely to facilitate retirement, creating a rare opportunity for a family, horticultural enthusiast, or entrepreneur to secure a thriving intergenerational business with a proven track record.

Key Features:
- Family owned and operated since 1972
- Well established and highly regarded local brand
- Approximately 70% of plants propagated and grown onsite
