The current owners have lived in and loved this home for three generations - it is now time to move on and give another family the chance to enjoy...

Peacefully situated across the road from an expansive leafy park and only a minute's walk from the shopping and restaurant precinct of Chatswood, this single level home abounds with opportunity.

Featuring four bedrooms, high ceilings, spacious living areas and an eat-in kitchen, this home would suit anyone with a bit of vision to take advantage of the great location.

Boasting a separate granny flat at the rear, and with potential to add a second storey to the rear of the main house, (STCA) the options are endless.

Serious buyers shopping with a budget from $1,250,000 should check out this property quickly!
