

31 Keppell St, Birkdale, QLD 4159

Sold - 17/02/2026

House 4 1 1

Spanish-Inspired Home with Soul and Unique Character

Welcome to 31 Keppell Street, Birkdale. Brimming with warmth and individuality, this Mediterranean-inspired home showcases arched architectural features, hand-rendered finishes, and exposed timber beams, evoking the charm of a Spanish villa while embracing relaxed Queensland living.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Perfectly positioned in the highly sought-after bayside suburb of Birkdale, this one-of-a-kind home offers a flexible and functional layout, including 3 bedrooms downstairs, plus a spacious mezzanine which can be used as a 4th bedroom, home office or secluded retreat.

A user-friendly kitchen connects seamlessly to the living and dining areas, while the home is serviced by one modernised bathroom. Outdoors, a private tropical rear garden backing onto a bubbling creek provides a peaceful oasis for entertaining or unwinding.

Freshly painted with new carpets throughout, the home is move-in ready with exciting potential to further enhance and personalise, while still offering a unique charm.

The central location is unparalleled, with the Birkdale Fair shopping centre, numerous cafes & restaurants, and the train station all only a 5 minute walk from your front door, and with Aquatic Paradise waterfront only a 3 minute drive.

Constructed from solid rendered Besser block, the home offers a strong, enduring foundation. Vaulted ceilings and textured finishes enhance the sense of space and character throughout, making this home a truly special opportunity that doesn't come around often.

Features include:

- Mediterranean-inspired architecture
- Vaulted ceilings, arches and exposed wooden beams
- Open plan, functional living
- 3 bedrooms plus a flexible mezzanine
- 1 modernised bathroom
- 2 separate living areas
- Large kitchen with ample counter space, storage & modern electric appliances
- Fully fenced

Listed By

The Office

Phone: (07) 3286 2500

