From the moment you step inside, you'll feel the warmth and charm that makes this home truly special. Downstairs features a spacious master bedroom with ensuite, plus an additional versatile room that can easily be used as a bedroom, home office or playroom. Entertain with ease in the expansive dining area and large lounge room, perfect for everyday living or hosting guests.

Just three steps down is the beautifully appointed chef's kitchen, designed with family gatherings in mind. The adjoining second lounge room creates flexible living spaces and both lounges open through huge doors to a breathtaking alfresco undercover entertaining area. Imagine relaxed BBQs or quiet moments surrounded by the incredible established gardens - this outdoor space is your own private haven.

Upstairs you'll find four great-sized bedrooms, including one with private balcony access overlooking the backyard - a peaceful spot for morning coffee or evening unwind. A centrally located family bathroom completes the upper level.

This home offers abundant storage throughout, generous room sizes and timeless character that modern homes often lack. Homes of this calibre, in such a prime position, are rarely available.

Location is everything - positioned on a spacious 901m² ½ RZ2 block, this property sits right next to Evatt Primary School, making school runs a breeze. Evatt is admired for its leafy streets, strong community feel and close proximity to quality local amenities. You're just minutes from local shops, parks, sporting facilities, public transport and major arterial routes, offering an enviable balance of tranquility and convenience.

Don't miss this chance to secure a remarkable family home in a fantastic suburb - properties like this don't come on the market often.
