Embrace the easy life with style!

Nestled in the highly sought-after Brandy Creek Views Estate, this stunning home provides a flexible floorplan with a choice of 4 bedrooms or the option of a second living zone, plus study and is a testament to both style and functionality in equal measure. Set on a beautifully landscaped, maintenance free corner block with convenient side access to a secure yard, this 3-year-old property showcases high ceilings and sleek timber laminate floors throughout. Offering lovely vista's from every outlook, a spacious open-plan living/dining zone sits at the heart of the home adjoining a modern kitchen with a walk-in pantry and deluxe appliances and flows perfectly out to the covered deck just perfect for alfresco dining. The main bedroom located at the rear for peace & privacy, features a generous walk-in robe and a luxurious ensuite with a impressive vanity, double shower, and floor-to-ceiling tiles while the secondary bedrooms are well serviced by a bright family bathroom. Ducted heating, reverse-cycle split system, a well-appointed laundry, and a built-in home office add to the home's internal appeal, while further highlights include an oversized garage with extra workshop space and an enticing fire pit zone. Positioned amongst quality homes in a well laid out estate with 'country feels' but just a short drive or bus ride to town & schools, this stunning property is perfect for buyers seeking an exceptional lifestyle without compromise.
