Inside, three spacious bedrooms provide generous accommodation, each complemented by ceiling fans for year-round comfort. The light-filled living area features split-system air conditioning and beautiful timber-look flooring, adding warmth and character while creating an inviting space to relax and unwind. The renovated kitchen is both stylish and functional, with contemporary finishes, generous preparation space and a practical layout designed for everyday living. The stunning family bathroom is equally impressive, featuring a separate shower and full-size bathtub, while a separate toilet and spacious laundry add further convenience.

Outside, fresh landscaping, level lawns, new fencing and a handy garden shed create a private and easy-care setting with plenty of space to simply enjoy. Whether it is a quiet morning coffee, an afternoon spent in the garden or relaxing as the bay breeze drifts through, the outdoor spaces continue the home's peaceful and welcoming feel.
