The open plan living area is warm and inviting, complemented by beautiful real timber floors throughout. They not only keep the home low maintenance but add to that timeless coastal charm and easy holiday atmosphere.

But the real jewel in the crown is the front undercover alfresco. A space where countless memories have been made over the years - lazy afternoons, family gatherings, meals with friends and, of course, plenty of cool drinks enjoyed from the hammock. It is a special little spot that has clearly been loved, and now it is ready for another family to make their own memories.

The fenced level backyard is another feature, offering space for the kids and dogs to run around, with more than enough room for a game of backyard cricket on a sunny afternoon.

With water glimpses and the coast so close, the location is just as appealing. Malua Bay Beach is around a 10 minute walk, with Pretty Point Beach only about 5 minutes away, offering a dog friendly spot for swimming, snorkelling and fishing. McKenzies Beach is also within easy reach, while local shops, supermarket, butcher, post office, restaurants, cafes and takeaway options are all close by.

For those who love getting outdoors, the surrounding headlands, coastal and forest tracks provide plenty of opportunities for walking, exploring, mountain biking and taking in the scenery.

A home with heart, a beautiful coastal setting and an alfresco made for memories - this is Malua Bay living at its most relaxed.
