House 4  2

A private Clareville retreat with captivating Pittwater view

Commanding north-facing, filtered views across Pittwater that span 180 degrees towards Lion Island and across to Ku-ring-gai National Park, this exceptional Clareville residence delivers a rare combination of privacy, space and elevated views through a bushland setting. The home showcases a wonderfully preserved retro aesthetic that gives it a unique and enduring sense of style. The main living level is designed for effortless entertaining, with beautiful, stacking timber doors that flow to an entertaining deck. The home itself is immaculate, featuring a new kitchen and bathrooms, freshly painted interior and exterior, and polished timber floors. Its expansive glazing and considered two-level layout allow Pittwater to take centre stage from almost every room.
