On arrival, you're greeted by a welcoming entry foyer that immediately sets the tone for the home. From here, the layout unfolds beautifully, flowing through to a sunken lounge on one side and an additional living space or formal dining on the other, creating a sense of separation while still feeling connected. It is perfect for family living and entertaining alike.

Designed with functionality in mind, the home features three separate air-conditioned living areas, including a dedicated media room, providing multiple zones for relaxation, entertaining, and everyday life.

The freshly renovated kitchen sits at the heart of the home and has been thoughtfully finished with stone waterfall benchtops, a filtered water tap, Westinghouse appliances, induction cooktop, wall oven with built-in microwave, a large pantry, and a spacious fridge cavity. With room for at least six bar stools, this space is ideal for family gatherings and casual entertaining.

Accommodation includes four generously sized bedrooms. The master suite offers a peaceful retreat with a large walk-in robe and a well-appointed ensuite featuring a spa bath, shower, toilet, and excellent storage. One of the additional bedrooms also benefits from a walk-in robe and air conditioning, making it ideal for guests or teenagers.

The main bathroom is well designed with a bath and separate shower, complemented by a separate powder room. It is perfect for busy households. Storage is abundant throughout the home, including a large linen press, separate broom cupboard, and additional bathroom storage.
