Bay windows frame the front lounge, drawing in natural light and garden views, while a separate family room provides space to unwind. At the heart of the home, the kitchen offers ample storage, breakfast bar seating and an easy connection to the dining area.

An expansive sunroom and covered outdoor living area make entertaining a highlight, with room for long lunches, celebrations and relaxed weekends at home.

The bathroom includes a separate bath and shower, with a separate toilet and internal laundry adding practicality. Side access, a garage and additional covered parking complete a home with space, comfort and enduring appeal.
