"Clear View"

"Clear View" Modern Queenslander on approx 4.9 acres

This stunning modern Queenslander is a true lifestyle sanctuary, perfectly positioned on approximately 4.9 acres to capture breathtaking sweeping rural views, exceptional privacy, and the beauty of the surrounding countryside. Set well back from the road, the residence offers a peaceful retreat where contemporary comfort meets timeless Queenslander charm, creating the ultimate blend of space, style, and natural serenity.

At the rear of the property, the landscape gently transitions into tranquil native bushland, creating a peaceful sanctuary ideal for bushwalking, wildlife watching, and reconnecting with nature.

Located just minutes from the charming township of Esk and the iconic Brisbane Valley Rail Trail, this exceptional property offers the best of country living with modern convenience close at hand.

From the moment you arrive, the home impresses with its classic Queenslander charm, elegant staircase entry, and expansive wraparound verandas designed to embrace the breathtaking surrounds. Inside, the spacious open-plan layout is both stylish and welcoming, featuring a modern kitchen, dining, and lounge area complete with a cosy wood heater and air conditioning perfect for year-round comfort and effortless entertaining.

The luxurious master suite is privately positioned at one end of the home, creating a true retreat. A walk-through robe leads to the oversized tiled ensuite featuring a walk-in shower, large vanity, and separate toilet. Four additional generously sized bedrooms all include built-in robes, providing plenty of space for family and guests alike.

A dedicated office or study near the formal entry offers the ideal work-from-home setup, while the beautifully appointed main bathroom includes a bath, large glass shower, vanity, and separate toilet. The practical tiled laundry provides convenient access to the veranda.

Step outside and enjoy your morning coffee on the sun deck while soaking in uninterrupted views across the property and surrounding countryside. Designed for both lifestyle and functionality.

The property also features a substantial 10.3m x 9m Colourbond shed with three roller doors, including an extra high centre door ideal for a caravan or boat. Complete with power, an additional bathroom with shower and toilet, and an adjoining 8m x 3.5m awning, the shed offers endless versatility.
