

4 Randell St, Dickson, ACT 2602

Sold - 28/02/2026

House 4  3

Location, Lifestyle and Long Term Potential

Set in a quiet, secluded pocket of Dickson, this versatile four-bedroom home presents a rare opportunity for families, investors, and forward-thinking buyers alike.

Comfortable as a family home, the property offers four generous bedrooms, two with ensuites and flexible living spaces. The lounge and extended family room work well with the kitchen, while upstairs another sitting room offers further space, ideal for a growing family. Outside the backyard is private and established for families to immediately enjoy.

For investors, the layout readily accommodates three independent tenants, each with their own bedroom and bathroom, sharing well-appointed common areas and delivering strong rental appeal and income potential.

Adding further value, the property benefits from future development upside, with the neighbouring block zoned RZ3, highlighting the area's evolving potential. (subject to planning approvals).

Whether you're seeking a comfortable home, a high-performing investment, or a site with long-term development appeal, this is an opportunity not to be missed.
