Undeniable Class

One of the best single level homes ever offered for sale with features that will blow your mind and open planned living and quality that will warm your heart. Walk through your bold double red entry doors to explore this boastful home, look to your left and enter the main bedroom with a private courtyard, enormous walk in robe and an ensuite to house a football team. When walking into the entertainers kitchen, stand at the island bench and glance towards your alfresco undercover area through the bi fold doors. The high cathedral ceilings, ceiling fans and timber floor give you the cosy feeling that you are home. A water feature in the courtyard off a sitting room, provides a sweet little recluse for the active reader. A home that keeps on giving, tour the double bedrooms with a fabulous main bathroom and the fourth bedroom, ensuite and a private lounge room close by. This would make for an easy conversion to a parents haven should your lifestyle deserve such a treat. You will not be disappointed when you view this property, but should you miss out on the opportunity to purchase - you will miss out on undeniable class.
