Just imagine listening to the sound of the ocean waves while reading the paper and having your morning coffee under the front verandah. Also with the beach only meters away, you will be able to swim, fish or just take a relaxing walk on the beach.

When you first walk through the front door you will just love the hardwood floors and 9ft ceilings along with the old character charm of this home. The first room you will come to is the huge master bedroom, which offers room for a king size bed and still leaving you with room for chairs to look out the front window towards to the beach.

Further down the hallway will bring you to the lounge room with heating for the colder months. Through the lounge room, brings you to the great sized kitchen with plenty of storage.

Off the kitchen is your very one laundry area which joins to the bathroom and toilet.

The home is situated in a prime location only minutes to everything you will need, Public transport, shops and café's, schools and obviously the beach.
