House 3  2

DOWNTOWN CHARM

Full of charm and timeless appeal, this well-maintained period home offers flexible living to suit a range of lifestyles. Configured as either three bedrooms with one spacious living area or two bedrooms with two separate living spaces, the home provides versatility for families, couples or downsizers. The main bedroom features a private ensuite, while a central bathroom services the remainder of the home. There is also a loft accessed by ladder adding additional storage to the home.

The functional kitchen overlooks the open plan living and dining area, creating a welcoming space for everyday living and entertaining. French doors open seamlessly onto a covered rear verandah, extending the living space outdoors to a private, low-maintenance backyard. Completing the property is a single carport for convenient off-street parking.

Ideally located within easy walking distance of the local bowls club, tennis courts and the main street shops, this charming home combines character, comfort and convenience in an enviable location.
