Renovated Terrace with Design-Led Living and Private Courtyard

Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac of Redfern, this beautifully renovated two-bedroom, two-storey terrace delivers a refined blend of contemporary design and colourful, inner-city character. Thoughtful palette and greenery creates a calm, curated aesthetic, while natural light is maximised throughout.

The main living area is intelligently divided by a Japanese sliding Shoji screen, offering flexibility, privacy and light flow - ideal for modern living and entertaining. A crisp white kitchen and bathroom with separate wc anchor the interiors with a timeless, minimalist finish, complementing the home's clean architectural lines.

At the rear, a private courtyard provides a tranquil outdoor retreat, enhanced by clever planting and perfect for alfresco dining or relaxed mornings.
