House 3 1 2

Versatile Family Home with Future Development Potential (STC)

44 Castlereagh Street, Tahmoor

Open for Inspection

Set in a sought-after location close to town, this charming home offers comfortable family living today with exciting potential for the future. Zoned R3 Medium Density Residential, the property presents an excellent opportunity for future townhouse development (subject to council approval) - appealing to homeowners, investors, and developers alike.

By Appointment.

The home features three bedrooms and a well-kept bathroom, along with three generous living areas that provide space for family gatherings, relaxation, and entertaining. A fireplace adds warmth and character, while a split-system air conditioner ensures comfort year-round.

Outside, there's plenty of room for vehicles with a two-car garage plus additional off-street parking for two more cars, ideal for families or guests.

Located just moments from shops, schools, public transport, and Tahmoor train station, this home offers everyday convenience and excellent access to local amenities. The combination of a peaceful residential setting and R3 zoning (subject to council approval) makes this an outstanding opportunity to live comfortably now and explore development options in the future.

44 Castlereagh Street, Tahmoor - a property full of warmth, potential, and possibility.
