Needs Some TLC But Has Been Reducing In Price

If looking for a good central location within easy walking distance to the CBD then this might be the property for you. Just in need of a TLC and modernising there are 2 bedrooms, lounge, dine, kitchen, bathroom and carport at the side. The vendor wants it sold and with the rising cost of rental accommodation, home ownership is becoming more of a realistic alternative. This might be the opportunity you have been waiting for. This property is already tenanted but there is potential for further improvement and therefore a better rental return.
