

49 Alexander Street Stuart T , Wellington, NSW 2820

Sold - 4/03/2026

House 3  1

Ready to shine

If you've been searching for a home with potential and the freedom to make it your own, this classic circa 1940 property could be just the project you've been waiting for.

Being sold as is, this home is surprisingly spacious and has a flexible floorplan. The layout can be configured as two or even three bedrooms depending on your lifestyle needs.

Updates have already begun, giving you a head start, meaning you can move in while you continue to add your own finishing touches.

Its galley-style kitchen is fully functional while the bathroom is well on its way, complete with a separate w.c.

Set on a generous 950sqm block, the yard has huge potential to be transformed with some thoughtful pruning and landscaping could really open things up making the most of the space.

With front and side access, plus a reliable bore the foundations are all in place.

Ideally located just a stroll from the Stuart Town General Store & a short drive to Mookerawa Waters on Lake Burrendong, this home is perfectly positioned for weekend getaways or peaceful everyday living.

You're just 45 minutes from Orange and 26 minutes from Wellington-close enough for convenience, yet far enough to enjoy the quiet village charm that Stuart Town Offers.
