This 2 bedroom cottage has a tidy traditional street appeal and is situated in an excellent central location half way between Centro Shopping and the CBD. With built in robes in one bedroom, oil heating and evaporative cooling its livable for now until you get around to doing those renovations. It's worth your time to have a look and be sure to make a reasonable offer that can't be refused. Close to the new shopping centre that is being built this is a great place to be.
