An alluring front garden hides the truly charming façade of this quality-built Rawdon Hill home. The main bedroom is generously sized and includes an ensuite and walk-in robe, so you don't miss out on those modern comforts.

The other two bedrooms include built-in robes and the functional study could easily be turned into that often-needed fourth bedroom.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen, dining and living area are perfect for family living. A second living space ensures there's plenty of space for everyone and the large timber deck offers a fantastic space for outdoor entertaining.

Heading outside, a completely private backyard and garden space give you ample outside enjoyment, and with a short drive to local sporting facilities, a short walk to town, and an even shorter walk to the Drouin Secondary college, the location is ideal for growing families.
