Thoughtfully designed and beautifully maintained, this substantial lowset home offers generous proportions throughout, multiple living zones and a seamless connection to the outdoors. The open-plan heart of the home flows naturally to covered entertaining areas, landscaped gardens and the sparkling swimming pool, creating an ideal setting for relaxed family living and entertaining.

The private master suite is generously proportioned and complemented by a walk-in robe and spacious ensuite, while the remaining bedrooms are positioned separately to provide excellent family functionality.

A dedicated media room, separate home office and expansive living areas add versatility, while the leafy outlook beyond the property brings a sense of privacy and calm that is increasingly hard to find.
