Upon entering the front door, you are greeted by an open-plan living space, adorned with beautiful timber double doors that seamlessly connect the indoors with the natural beauty outside. The entire downstairs area is elegantly tiled.

The living room is a haven of comfort, designed for relaxation and entertainment. The endless exit points to the outside beckon you to step onto the spacious deck, where you can bask in the sun, dine al fresco, or simply unwind.

The two downstairs bedrooms are cosy retreats, each boasting modern open bathrooms that exude luxury and sophistication. The careful attention to detail in the design ensures that every corner of this home reflects the coastal charm that makes beach living so enchanting.

A gracefully crafted internal staircase leads you to the ultimate opportunity upstairs—a versatile space that can serve as an additional living area or a luxurious parents' retreat. The feature-style ceilings add character and charm, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. Imagine waking up to breathtaking water views from the front upstairs porch, a perfect spot to sip your morning coffee or enjoy the vibrant hues of the sunset in the evening.
