UNIQUE LIVING, ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES & A VAULT FULL OF HISTO

Some properties offer a little extra. Others offer an entirely different way of living. 53 Main Street, Strathmerton is one of those rare finds, combining flexible living arrangements, impressive space and a fascinating piece of history that sets it apart from the ordinary.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Set on a generous 706m² allotment, this versatile property offers a substantial main residence, separate self-contained granny flat, additional studio and expansive undercover parking. Whether you're accommodating extended family, exploring investment opportunities, running a business from home or simply looking for a property with room to adapt, the possibilities here are genuinely exciting.

And for a talking point you won't find in every home, there's even an original commercial-grade bank vault complete with its formidable security door!

SPACE, FLEXIBILITY & CHARACTER

A Spacious Main Residence

The main residence welcomes you with a generous, light-filled living room measuring approximately 6.31m x 6.70m. Timber-look flooring and split-system air conditioning create a comfortable setting for everyday living and relaxation.

The practical U-shaped kitchen features upright gas cooking, excellent pantry storage and a dedicated adjoining dining area, while two oversized bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, including a spacious main bedroom measuring approximately 3.57m x 3.57m.

A Vault with a Story to Tell

Adding genuine character and a touch of intrigue, the rear wing reveals an original commercial-grade bank vault, complete with its heavy-duty security door. Whether retained as a unique historical feature or explored for secure storage, a wine cellar or another creative purpose, it's certainly a feature that makes this property memorable.
