Beach Hair. Bare Feet. Mid-Century Magic.

A 5-minute stroll to the golden sand of North Avalon Beach, this authentic all-white mid-century cottage is pure coastal nostalgia-stylish, soulful and effortlessly cool. Set on a completely level, sunny block in the coveted cul-de-sac end of Elaine Avenue, it's one of those increasingly rare homes that simply feels good to be in.

And getting to the beach couldn't be easier. Wander through the back garden gate, stroll across the reserve and you're on the sand. No roads to cross. No traffic. Just one of North Avalon's best-kept secrets.

Beautifully preserved and filled with natural light, the home blends vintage character with a relaxed coastal feel. Entertaining decks on both sides spill onto lush level lawns and tropical gardens, while a fully self-contained wing offers exceptional flexibility. Keep it completely independent for grandparents, guests, Airbnb, a home office or teenagers craving a little freedom, or simply open it up and create one generous family home. The choice is yours.

Homes like this aren't about perfection-they're about possibility. Move straight in and embrace its timeless beach house charm, add your own touches over time, or simply enjoy the rare luxury of a large level block in one of North Avalon's most tightly held pockets.
