A Spacious Terrace In A Tightly Held Pocket

A charming Victorian facade and a prized setting a picturesque one-way street make a fitting introduction to this spacious c1900 terrace. Set in a tightly held pocket just footsteps from Crown Street, the two-storey home offers a welcome sense of calm with freshly schemed interiors and a private walled courtyard. A flexible four-bedroom layout lends itself to city living, with three bedrooms upstairs including a main with double French doors to a sunroom. A bright living room and contemporary dine-in gas kitchen make the home immediately comfortable, while the private walled courtyard offers scope to reimagine the connection between indoors and out. Perfect for those seeking a city sanctuary or a well-positioned investment, the terrace is just 200m to Surry Hills Village and Wunderlich Lane's celebrated restaurants and bars. Discover an enviable lifestyle with neighbourhood cafes, designer boutiques and fitness studios all around, an easy 350m stroll to the light rail and 850m to Central station.
