The home comprises three bedrooms, all fitted with built in robes and serviced by a central bathroom. The functional kitchen with open-plan dining truly is the heart of the home. A large formal sunken lounge provides the perfect space to unwind after a long day or entertain family and friends.

Comfort is assured year-round with a gas wall heater and ceiling fans throughout. Outdoors, the generous block features low-maintenance gardens and a separate double garage, offering excellent storage and parking options.

The location is hard to beat, conveniently positioned close to electric vehicle charging stations, with easy freeway access and just a short drive to Moe's town centre, schools and amenities.

A well-presented home with character, space and an unbeatable location - this is an opportunity not to be missed.
