Substantial Family Home with Superb Potential in Belmore's B

Exceptionally located in Belmore's finest street, this substantial freestanding home offers solid bones, generous proportions and a flexible layout for young and growing families. Comfortable as is while also ready for some love and care, it presents an exciting opportunity to refresh, rework and make it your own in a tightly-held family neighbourhood pocket (STCA). It currently comprises a traditional layout with well-presented interiors enhanced by high ornate ceilings and timber floorboards. There are both formal and informal living areas with a formal dining room warmed in winter by a combustion fireplace. The kitchen is original yet in good condition, while there are three large bedrooms, the main adjoins a sitting room. A sun-bathed level backyard features a courtyard setting and level lawn, while a further highlight is the separate self-contained studio. Explore the potential in this superb family home positioned in a community-minded enclave, a stroll to the upcoming metro, local shops and eateries, while moments to quality schools, Belmore Sports Ground and Canterbury Leagues Club.
